Bill is reading an email about a friend's holiday.

To	Bill
From	Jim

Hi Bill,

I'm on holiday in a small house in a big jungle. It is very different from home. There are differences in the weather and the plants and the animals.

The weather is very hot. In the morning there are no clouds and we can see the sun. Sometimes the weather is bad in the afternoons. It rains and is very wet.

I can see mountains from my window. There is a river next to the house. I sometimes go for a swim there. I often see monkeys and birds in the trees. It's beautiful here.

May is reading an email from a girl in Canada.

To	May
From	Jane

Hello May,

My name is Jane and I am eight years old. I live with my mum and dad and my brother. He's six. We live on an island in Canada. It's a beautiful place. The weather here is very cold and windy and it often snows. There is snow and ice and everything is white and clean. The days are short and the nights are long.

The sea is very cold but there are a lot of fish. I sometimes see whales in the sea and sea birds in the sky. Is it hot in your country? Tell me about your home.
