Hello, ambitious learners!
Get ready to sharpen your
English, discuss engaging topics, and build confidence in expressing yourself.

Walk through

Take Off with English makes it easy for language learners to achieve a solid foundation in English and for teachers to measure their pupils' progress. It prepares learners for success in today's world by teaching them skills such as global awareness, critical thinking and collaboration.

Take Off with English 8 and 9 are perfect for all primary English classes and they also fully develop learners' communication skills for the Cambridge English: Flyers test syllabus.

Frequent practice of the four skills of reading, writing, speaking and listening is fully integrated into each unit of the Pupil's Book, creating confident users of English. New grammar and vocabulary are introduced gradually and contextualised in a lively unit theme and story. In addition to the comprehensive Teacher's Guide, teachers can access supporting resources to facilitate teaching and strengthen their pupils' learning at www.mceducation.com/towe.

Children learn about the world, other children's lives and reflect on their own experiences in the It's our world! section in each unit.

Discussion questions encourage communication, personalisation and critical thinking

The two revision units consolidate learning and prepare learners for assessments in a fun and communicative way.

Revision activities are engaging and practise all four skills.

Audio recordings provide models for speaking activities.

1. What can you see in the photo?
2. Is it winter or summer in the photo? Why?
3. What is the weather like in the photo?

2. Read the text. Correct the red words in the sentences with one word from the text.

1.10 Hi, I'm Lotta. I'm from Kemi, in Finland. There are four seasons in Finland. The temperature changes from season to season. The number of hours of light in a day too are very different in summer, winter, autumn and spring.

In the summer, we have very long days and very short nights. From late May to August, the sky is never very dark. And on 21st and 22nd June, the sun does not go down! People find it very difficult to sleep when it isn't dark at night. Birds and animals too stay awake at night in the summer. Finnish people say that winters are for sleeping and summers are for having fun!

1. There are two seasons in Finland. four
2. In Finland, the number of hours of light in a day are the same in different seasons. _____
3. In the summer, the days are very short. _____
4. In Kemi, the longest days of the year are in August. _____
5. It is difficult for Finnish people to sleep at night in the winter. _____

3. Read and circle the correct answer.

1.11 Winters in Kemi are very different from summers. In the winter, the days are very short and the nights are long. The shortest days are 21st and 22nd December. On these days, you only see the sun for about three hours, so it is dark for 21 hours!

It is very cold in the winter. January is the coldest month in Kemi. The lakes and the sea near the city freeze in the winter, and are covered with ice. We wear warm clothes and often go skating on the ice. In this season, some birds fly away to warmer countries, and some animals, for example, bears, sleep until spring!

1. On the shortest days in Kemi, you can see the sun for only three / five hours.
2. The coldest month in Kemi is December / January.
3. Kemi is near a river / the sea.
4. In the winter, the lakes in Kemi are covered with ice / snow.
5. In January, some birds in Kemi fly away to warmer / colder countries.

4. Talk to a friend. Then tell the class.

1. How are the seasons in Kemi different from the seasons in your country?
2. Would you like to live in Kemi? Why?

1. Look at the photos. What do you think these things do?

2. Read the text. Answer the questions.

2.11 Hi! I'm Kabir. I live in Jaipur, in India. I love going to school because I learn new things there every day. I wear a watch to school because I want to be on time for my lessons. But people didn't always have watches, clocks and mobile phones to tell the time. They used sundials!

The first sundials were easy to make. People used stones or drew lines on the ground to show the hours. Then they put a stick in the ground, and the shadow of the stick told the time. For example, when the sun was high in the middle of the day, the shadow of the stick was on the line that meant 'midday'.

1. Why does Kabir wear a watch to school?
2. What did people use to tell the time before they had clocks, watches and mobile phones?
3. What points to the hour on the sundial?

3. Look, read and tick (✓) or cross (✗).

This week at school, we are learning about sundials. In 1719, an Indian king, Jai Singh, asked some scientists to build the biggest sundial in the world. It was built in Jaipur, and it's called the Vrihat Samrat Yantra. It's still one of the biggest sundials in the world. My family always takes our friends to see it.

Here's a photo of it. The tall building in the photo is like the stick in the first sundials. Its shadow tells the time. The people who made it were very clever. Watches and clocks can sometimes tell the wrong time, but when the sun is in the sky, this sundial always tells the right time!

1. This week at school, Kabir is learning about Indian kings. ✗
2. Around 300 years ago, scientists built the biggest sundial in the world in Jaipur. ☐
3. The Vrihat Samrat Yantra is still one of the biggest sundials in the world. ☐
4. The shadow of the tall building in the photo tells the time. ☐
5. The Vrihat Samrat Yantra always tells the right time. ☐

4. Talk to a friend. Then tell the class.

2. Are sundials a good way to tell the time? Why?
3. How do you think people told the time before there were sundials?

It's our world!

1. Look at the photo. What fruit can you see?

2. Read the text. Answer the questions.

Hello! My name is Zakia. I'm from Java in Indonesia, and I love eating chocolate! You need cocoa beans and sugar to make chocolate. They both grow on farms in Indonesia.

People didn't always have cocoa in Indonesia. Cocoa first grew in Central and South America. The people there made a drink from cocoa beans mixed with hot water. Sometimes they added honey and spices to the drink. They put cocoa in their food, too.

When Europeans visited Central and South America, they liked the cocoa drink, so they took cocoa beans back with them to Europe. Then, in Europe, they learnt to make chocolate from cocoa. Later, they took cocoa with them to different countries around the world. That's how farmers started to grow cocoa in Indonesia.

1. Which two things do you need to make chocolate?
2. Where did cocoa first grow?
3. Which two things did the people of Central and South America sometimes add to their cocoa drink?
4. What did the Europeans learn to make from cocoa?

3. Look, read and circle Yes or No.

5.10 Today, a lot of the world's cocoa grows here in Indonesia. In Java, farmers grow Criollo cocoa beans. They are the best cocoa beans for making chocolate. In Photo 1, you can see cocoa fruits growing on a tree, and in Photo 2, you can see a ripe cocoa fruit with the beans inside. Farmers cut the ripe fruit and take out the beans. Then they dry the beans and take them to a factory. In the factory, people cook and grind the beans to make cocoa powder and cocoa paste. Then people from all around the world buy this cocoa powder and paste to make chocolate.

1. Very little cocoa grows in Indonesia. Yes / No
2. Photo 2 shows us a ripe cocoa fruit. Yes / No
3. Farmers take cocoa beans to factories, and people in factories dry the cocoa beans. Yes / No
4. After people cook and grind the cocoa beans, we get chocolate powder. Yes / No

4. Talk to a friend. Then tell the class.

1. What do you like eating? Does it grow near your home?
2. Do you eat food that comes from other countries? What food is it, and which country does it come from?
3. Is it good to bring food to your country from far away? Why?
