Teacher/parent note: Model the starting points and the movements needed to write j, k and l on the board.
Extension activity: Ask pupils to point to and say the letters on the page they recognise, eg a, c and e in jacket. This can be repeated in subsequent units to revise and consolidate previous material.

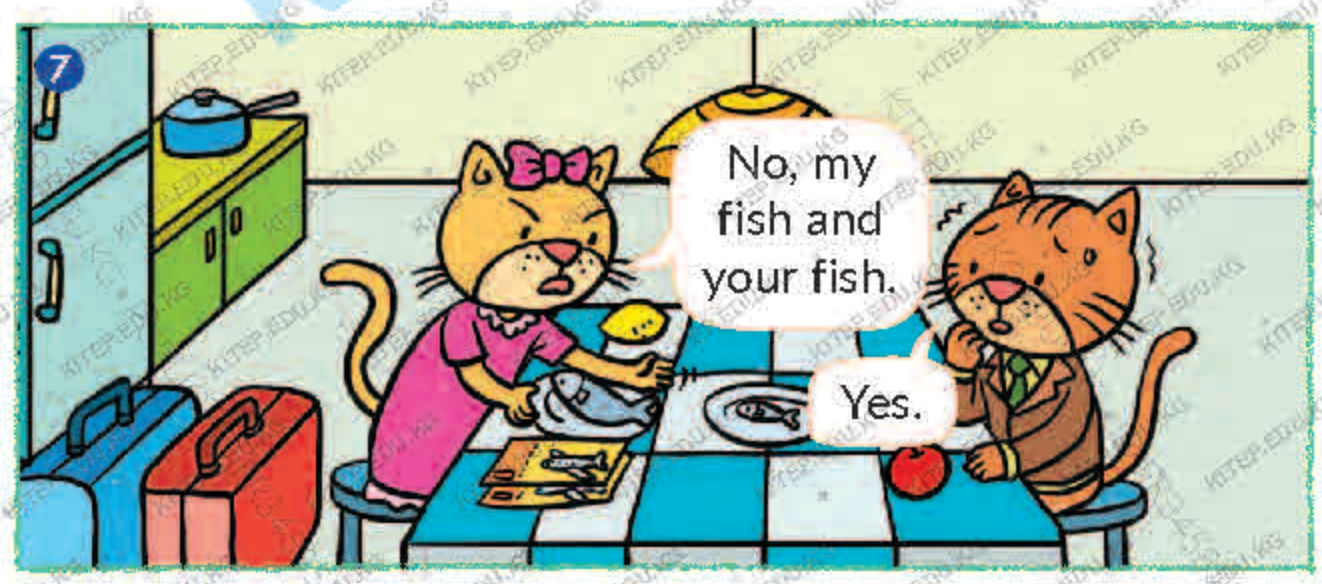

Listen. Point and say.

Teacher/parent note : Teach my, your and black.

5
My lemon and your apple.
Yes.

6
My fish and your fish.

7
No, my fish and your fish.
Yes.

Read and match.

Teacher/parent note: Teach What's ...?. Read the speech bubbles to the class and explain the scenario. Pex is asking Max what's in his bag. Pupils read the text and draw lines to the correct items in the bag.

Sing.

What's in, what's in your bag?
My jacket is in my bag.
What's in, what's in your bag?
My jacket's in my bag.

What's in, what's in your bag?
My black jeans are in my bag.
What's in, what's in your bag?
My jeans are in my bag.

Teacher/parent note: Sing the song to the tune of Skip to My Lou.
Extension activity: Replace the vocabulary in the song with previously taught vocabulary.
