Ogg, Agg and Egg don't often go to school at the weekend, but they had to go to school last Saturday. It was School Sports Day. They had to do lots of funny sports and funny races.

In the morning, Ogg, Egg and Agg had an egg race. They had to run with an egg and not let it fall. Ogg and Agg dropped their eggs but Egg didn't. He won. Then they had to swim with big shoes on. Egg's shoes fell off. Agg won that race. Then they all rode horses. Egg fell off his horse and Agg's horse didn't want to run. Ogg won the race. After lunch, they had to carry very big boxes, cross the river, run past the school and then climb a very tall wall. Agg was first in that race. After that, Ogg and Agg played badminton but they had to play with their eyes closed. They didn't know who won the game. Then they had a race to eat apples but they couldn't use their hands. They were all good at that but Ogg ate more apples than the other two. In the evening, they had to hop and jump. It was difficult for Egg because his foot hurt. Ogg was second and Agg was first.

At the end of the day, Ogg, Egg and Agg were tired but happy.

1. Where did Ogg, Egg and Agg have to go last weekend? — They had to go to school.

Unit 8

Quickly or slowly?

1. Read and tick (✓) or cross (✗).

It's the big race at Green Street School tomorrow! I'm very tired this evening because I skated in the gym and then I ran a lot today. We ran in the gym and then we ran outside in the playground. Mr Lee said I ran very quickly this afternoon. It was great! But tomorrow I have to run quickly, too.

Sue has a bad leg and she can't run in the race with me. She didn't see a small rock in the playground, and fell on it. Now her leg hurts. She can only walk slowly now. Jill played badminton well today. She wants to play again tomorrow.

Bill climbed the wall in the gym. He climbed really carefully, and Max laughed loudly at him. Max always laughs when we climb the wall in the gym because he thinks we all climb slowly! He always climbs really quickly.

But Max was naughty in the gym today, and Mr Lee shouted angrily at him. After that, Max went out of the gym very sadly. Mr Lee said Max can't come in the gym again this week.

Pex: I'm singing my favourite song. Don't you like it?
Sue: It's OK. But can you sing more quietly, please?
Pex: I can. Like this.
Sue: Thank you, Pex.

Recording 9.1

Mr Lee Now. Did everyone enjoy the day at the zoo?
Children: Yes!
Mr Lee: So let's do some work about it today. Everybody must do something. First you, Sue.
Sue: Yes, Mr Lee?
Mr Lee: You must paint some pictures of the animals for us. You're the best person to do that.
Sue: OK, Mr Lee.
Mr Lee: Thanks, Sue.
Mr Lee: And I took lots of photos at the zoo.
Sue: Yes, I know, Mr Lee.
Mr Lee: So I must put them on the school's internet page. All the parents want to see them.
Sam: We want to see them, too.
Mr Lee: Bill. We must go on the internet to learn about some of the animals at the zoo, too. Can you do that, Bill?
Bill: Yes, I'd like to do that. I want to know more about giraffes.
Mr Lee: Great. Now something for you to do, May. We must write about our day at the zoo. Can you do that, please? And then we can put that with Sue's pictures on the wall.
May: Yes, OK. There's a lot to write about.
Mr Lee: Now you, Sam.
Sam: Yes, Mr Lee?
Mr Lee: You got lots of toy animals in the zoo shop. Is that right?
Sam: Yes, it is. I got toys of all the animals we saw at the zoo.
Mr Lee: Wow! So tomorrow, you can show the class the animals, and you must talk to us about each one. You can put them on my table.
Sam: OK, Mr Lee.

Recording 10.1

Miss Sun: Children, tell me which monsters are yours. Jake, which is your monster?
Jake: It's the monster which has four arms and two heads. It's got a long tail that helps it climb trees. Its ears are very long, too.
Miss Sun: Jim, what about your monster?
Jim: Mine's the monster that's got duck's feet. Look! It can't run but it can swim really well! It's got three arms and a mouth that's always open!
Miss Sun: Great! Tell me about your monster, Vicky.
Vicky: My monster has a beard which is curly. It's got a funny nose which is yellow, and round ears.
Miss Sun: Now you, Joan.
Joan: My monster has only got one eye. It's got legs which have hair on them, but no arms. It has lots of hair which is curly and brown.
Miss Sun: And now your monster, Jill. Which one is it?
Jill: My monster's body is like a cat's body. It's got a head which is a lot bigger than its body. Its ears are like a rabbit's ears. Inside its mouth, it's got lots of teeth which are grey and dirty. It never cleans its teeth!
